

Preparation of Budget

Parish faith formation programs are to submit a copy of the proposed budget to both the pastor and the parish council president for parish council review prior to its final adoption. The president will present the agreed upon budget to the parish council for inclusion in the general parish budget.

In the case of an area faith formation program:

The proposed area faith formation program budget will be submitted to each pastor and parish council president for parish council review.

Pastors and a representative from each parish will meet to discuss the proposed budget.

Parish representatives will come to an agreement regarding the faith formation budget and parish subsidy.
