

Chemical Abuse Education And Prevention

The information contained in the Marquette Diocesan Handbook entitled Chemical Education and Abuse Prevention is to be used by all school personnel.

The administrators, teachers, support staff and parents should be involved in identifying, reviewing, and selecting programs which promote the following important themes: self-esteem, decision-making, communication, coping with stress, peer and family relationships and goal setting.

Rule

Adopted: February 28, 1991

Updated: February 2002

DIOCESE OF MARQUETTE
Marquette, Michigan