

Parental Participation in Faith Formation Programs

School leadership must involve parents in a way that acknowledges that the parents are the most significant influence on faith formation of their children.

School leadership must assist parents in the formation of their own faith, and provide for a partnership model that enables parents to assume the primary responsibility for the faith formation of their children.

Policy

Revised: May 7, 1992

Updated: February 2002

DIOCESE OF MARQUETTE
Marquette, Michigan