

DIOCESE OF MARQUETTE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

presents

The Third Annual

M I D W E S T C O N F E R E N C E O N

CATHOLIC LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION

Catholic Schools as Communities of Learners Rooted in Charity and Mission

Dr. Michael Pennell, Principal, Prince of Peace Catholic School; Taylors, SC

Michael Adkins, Dean of Academics, St. Agnes School; St. Paul, MN

Jessie Van Hecke, Kindergarten & First Grade Teacher, St. Augustine Academy; Ventura, CA

Rev. Brad Sjoquist, Associate Pastor, Holy Spirit and Resurrection Parish; Menominee, MI

Linda Mikottis, Senior Educational Consultant, Institute for Excellence in Writing

Additional small group leaders not listed

Practical classroom application and peer interaction with a sample of small group sessions below;

- ❖ Catholic professional learning communities in your schools
- ❖ The Religion teacher and the kerygma
- ❖ The partnership between the home and school in developing a love for reading
- ❖ Improving student writing through reflection on student work
- ❖ Preparing the primary student writer
- ❖ Best practices in Latin instruction
- ❖ Diagramming sentences: why it's important and how to do it
- ❖ Recitations in the elementary classrooms
- ❖ Teaching Logic in the middle school classrooms
- ❖ Teaching dynamic History with primary sources, timelines, and stories
- ❖ Inquiry based and experimental Science
- ❖ Math strategies for the struggling and exceptional students

June 12th & 13th

8:00am - 3:30pm ET

Holy Name Catholic School, 409 South 22nd St., Escanaba, MI 49829

Cost: $150/person. Register at dioceseofmarquette.org/catholicschools

Questions, contact Mark Salisbury: msalisbury@dioceseofmarquette.org