

Estate & Funeral Planning

Educational Seminars

for Diocese of Marquette Parishes and Catholic Schools

- ▶ The seminars empower diocesan parishes, missions and Catholic Schools to easily offer quality educational opportunities utilizing local experts and with minimal investment of time and financial resources on the part of the parish, school, or presenters.
- ▶ Two options to choose from:
 - 1.5 hour “Estate Planning Seminar”
 - 3-hour “Parish Stewardship Morning” that includes
 - a) Estate Planning
 - b) Stewardship Reflection
 - c) Funeral Planning
- ▶ Programs include:
 1. A Seminar Planning Guide. Everything you need to host an informative and dynamic educational program. Includes planning sheet, talking points for the pastor, and tips and tools for advertising the seminar.
 2. A PowerPoint presentation with presenter notes.
 3. Seminar folders for each participant, with informational brochures and handouts.
 4. Assistance with scheduling qualified presenters and planning your seminar.
- ▶ Comments from seminar participants:
 - “The seminar touched on many topics that we didn’t even know we had to discuss.”
 - “Invaluable information!”
 - “I learned ways to think about my own financial situation, and ways to help my parents.”
 - “Very informative, clear and concise. Easy to understand without someone trying to sell me something.”

Schedule a seminar for your parish or school today!

Terri Gadzinski

Stewardship & Development

Diocese of Marquette

Direct phone 906.227.9108 | Email tgadzinski@dioceseofmarquette.org

The seminars are sponsored by Legacy of Faith, a permanent endowment to preserve and foster the Catholic faith in the Upper Peninsula.

Local funeral director, Mark Canale, presents the funeral planning portion of a recent Parish Stewardship Morning at St. Michael Parish in Marquette.