

Chosen Correlation

Chosen produced by Ascension Press is very well done. It is video based and engaging to the youth. A complete review of it has taken place and a correlation with the Diocesan High School Curriculum has been done. It explicitly teaches many of the curriculum objectives as noted below. The program features many well known and respected youth ministry experts. The lessons cover a significant portion of the diocesan curriculum and the small group methodology provides the catechist solid opportunities to cover additional curricular points that may not be explicit in the lessons.

The catechist should read the curriculum session covered by the text thoroughly and consider where the curriculum could be covered in more depth. It is suggested that this begin with the objectives listed for a particular lesson.

The correlation is done in a two-fold manner. The first, lists curriculum objectives by where they are covered in the text book. The second correlation is a comprehensive list of curricular objectives covered in each pod.

Finally a list of components of Chosen is included.
