Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

"We don't know what the future holds, but it's all God's work," says Sister Theresa McGrath (center), 86, a member of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio. In good times and bad, she and the religious shown here have devoted themselves to God's work. They are among nearly 30,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who benefit from the Retirement Fund for Religious. Your gift helps provide medications, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

Please give at your local parish.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

Serving the Church and Nation
Learn more at collection.catholic.edu

Catholic University's motto — God Is My Light — is a constant reminder of our origin and mission. For 133 years, it has served as a guide as the University educates students who go on to serve the nation and transform the world. Now, more than ever during the coronavirus pandemic, the University is serving those in need — including members of our own community.

Support of the National Collection not only supports students but also helps the University serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research initiatives and training programs, such as The Catholic Project - an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the current crisis in the Church, an online Child Protection Certificate Program, a Master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers.

These are a few examples how the University is responding to the most pressing needs of our Church and nation.

This collection combines three special causes that aid the Church in America.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development
The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) allocates funds to community projects that promote the mission and vision of CCHD while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church..

National Retirement Fund for Religious

Like many Americans, religious communities face rising retirement and health-care costs and often struggle to provide for elderly members. Please support the Retirement Fund for Religious collection at Mass.
